Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Gregory is a progressive business community with quality health care, vibrant agriculture, and a wide variety of retail businesses; and,

Whereas, Gregory County was part of the "Last Frontier" opened to settlers, and, on August 8, 1904, Gregory was formally opened to the public as a government town; and,

Whereas, Gregory is nestled in south central South Dakota, offering wide open spaces on the prairie. This landscape of prairie, wooded creeks, and rolling hills provide the best habitat for game and is a hunters paradise; and,

Whereas, Gregory has continued to prosper because of honest, hard-working, and family-oriented people, making it a tremendous place to live and grow; and,

Whereas, Now, state government is going on the road to the people of Gregory and the surrounding area in a unique program called "Capital for a Day"; and,

Whereas, "Capital for a Day" is designed to provide a local forum whereby an exchange of ideas, information, and concerns among the governor, cabinet officials, representatives for the private business sector, local elected officials, special interest groups, and the general public can occur:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 6, 2010, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-second Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Ten.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
